CALLER. Dear old Jack. I just read in the paper about your being struck, and rubbed right over. I'm awfully glad you're as well as you are.

You're lucky. Now, old man, I don't want to work the old "I told you so" gag on you, but the way to prevent sunstroke is to keep the bowels clean and cool, and the blood from being over-heated, by taking a CASCARET Candy Cathartic at bed-time. They work while you sleep, and keep you safe and comfortable all day.

CONTRACT FOR HOTEL AT GRAND AND PINE.

Street Floor to Be Occupied by Seven Stores on Andrew Sproule's Corner.

PLANS FOR NOVEL FACTORY.

Frank N. Johnson Contemplates Building Series of Apartments for Small Manufacturers on Laclede Avenue.

Contracts have been let for the construction of seven stores and a first-class family hotel at the northeast corner of Pine street and Grand avenue to cost about $50,000. The property is owned by Andrew Sproule.

Other important building operations contemplated in the vicinity of Grand avenue are planned for a large lot on the north side of Laclede avenue about 500 feet west of Grand, where Frank N. Johnson, who recently transferred management of the Simmons Hardware Company, will build a five-story factory, the investment to represent several hundred thousand dollars.

Special interest is attracted to Mr. Sproule's plans for the Grand and Pine corner for the reason that the new stores will be the first of any consequence to be erected on Pine street west of Jefferson avenue. The plans also show that the demand for business houses on Grand for several blocks in the vicinity of Olive street is growing.

While comparatively small, covering a lot 50x135 feet, the Sproule building will be a handsome structure, three stories high, finished with red brick and white terra-cotta trimmings. The fronts of the seven stores will be of plate glass. On the two upper floors about thirty-six rooms will be arranged with connecting baths. Modern conveniences will be combined with elaborate trimmings.

Charles K. Ramsey is the architect and he announces that construction will be pushed at a rate to insure completion before the World's Fair opens.

UNIQUE FACTORY SCHEME. Frank N. Johnson's factory building to be erected on Laclede near Grand avenue, it is stated, will be the first of its kind in St. Louis. It is to be somewhat in the nature of a factory apartment-house, arranged in suites.

The idea is to furnish accommodations to many small manufacturers who may find in this plant the necessary motive power, electricity and a convenience in arrangement for which they would have to pay less, perhaps, than for an isolated plant.

The combination of community of interest in operating expenses, it is thought, and benefit small manufacturers whose capital is limited.

Mr. Johnson already owned a lot, 20x215 feet, on Laclede, 315 feet west of Grand avenue, and yesterday he closed the purchase of an adjoining lot, 50x125 feet, from F. N. Crunden, who will make arrangements to build a home in some other part of the city.

Mr. Johnson's plans are not yet mature and it is possible that his proposed building will be designed for only one or two manufacturers. The scheme to build a series of factories under one roof, however, has found much encouragement and probably will be carried out.
